Appendix A – Social Housing Process Reference Model modelled in BPMN

Diagram showing the process reference model for social housing, including stages such as work planning, work design, work execution, asset management, and related activities such as communication of revenues, budget report, and updates. The model involves various actors such as the Technical sector, external technicians, involved local companies, tenants, and administrative and economic management.